

Autumn Term 1

The children of Eric Carle 1 Nursery have thoroughly enjoyed exploring different textures and smelling the autumnal collection of conkers, fir cones, leaves and sycamore seeds in the tuff tray this half of term. They have been developing their language and maths skills along with learning all about the colour changes in the leaves. The pumpkins were a huge success with the children investigating the inside of them, comparing the sizes and shapes as well as counting the seeds.

