

Week	News story	Focus question	UN Article	British value
12 th April	The Royal Voluntary Service (RVS) has recently marked one year since the NHS Volunteer Responders scheme launched.	Would you be a volunteer?		Mutual Respect - We can choose to volunteer or raise funds. This might be at our school or in the community. Volunteering can benefit others and can also make us happy.
19 th April	The Union Jack will be flown on UK Government buildings every day of the year under plans to celebrate the United Kingdom's heritage and pride. Ministers are set to issue new guidance this week to get the world-famous flag displayed all year round – not just on designated days.	Where might you see a flag?		Rule of Law - The Union flag is the national flag of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. From this Summer, the Union flag must be flown every day on UK government buildings as a symbol of UK's national unity and pride.
26 th April	Children's Laureate, Cressida Cowell, has written a letter asking the prime minister to allocate £100m a year to help school libraries.	What can you do in a school library?		Democracy - We can all choose what books we want to look at and read. Sometimes we can have a vote to decide which book should be read at story time.
3 rd May	The retailer Marks and Spencer (M&S) has begun legal action against supermarket Aldi, arguing the supermarket's Cuthbert the Caterpillar cake infringes its Colin the Caterpillar trademark.	How does copying help us to learn?		Mutual Respect and Tolerance - It is important to respect other people's feelings and check if it's OK before we copy someone. Some people may not mind if we copy what they do or say, but others may get upset.
10 th May	Within days of the announcement of a new football Super League competition - open to only the biggest clubs, most of the teams had withdrawn, deciding they no longer wanted to take part.	What sport do you and your family enjoy?		Individual Liberty - There are lots of different sports and exercises that we can do to stay fit and healthy. It's important to make sure we all take part in exercise but we should choose a sport or exercise that we enjoy and is right for us.
17 th May	Sing2G7, an ambitious project aiming to give children a voice ahead of the upcoming G7 Summit, have recorded a song at Truro cathedral.	Why do people listen to music?		Democracy - People sometimes sing songs to make their voices heard or to encourage others to think about an important issue such as climate change.
24 th May	The newest toy craze sweeping schools called Pop-Its has replaced the fidget spinner as the must-have item in the hands of both young and old.	Do we choose what toys to play with because of the way they feel?		Mutual Respect and Tolerance - Some people have a favourite toy because they like the way it feels. We might have a toy at home or something in school. We must remember that everyone's toy is special to them.